CASE NO. 1:20-CR-00045 NONE-SKO

STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
[PROPOSED] FINDINGS AND ORDER
(Doc. 28)

STIPULATION

The Court previously set a status conference in this case for March 15, 2021.

19 On May 13, 2020, this Court issued General Order 618, which suspends all jury trials in the 20 Eastern District of California “until further notice.” Further, pursuant to General Order 611, this Court’s
21 declaration of judicial emergency under 18 U.S.C. § 3174, and the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council’s
22 Order of April 16, 2020 continuing this Court’s judicial emergency, this Court has allowed district
23 judges to continue all criminal matters to a date after May 2, 2021.¹ On June 29, 2020, this Court
24 issued General Order 620 authorizing videoconferencing for a variety of hearings (detention, initial 25 appearance, pleas and sentencing under certain circumstances, etc.) for an additional 90 days. This and 26 previous General Orders were entered to address public health concerns related to COVID-19.

¹ A judge “may order case-by-case exceptions” at the discretion of that judge “or upon the request of counsel, after consultation with counsel and the Clerk of the Court to the extent such an order will impact court staff and operations.” General Order 618, ¶ 7 (E.D. Cal. May 13, 2020).

1 Although the General Orders and declarations of emergency address the district-wide health
 2 concern, the Supreme Court has emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act's end-of-justice provision
 3 "counteract[s] substantive openendedness with procedural strictness," "demand[ing] on-the-record
 4 findings" in a particular case. Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). "[W]ithout on-the-
 5 record findings, there can be no exclusion under" § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such
 6 failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153
 7 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit 8 findings on the record "either orally or in writing").

9 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory
 10 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, 617, and 618, and the subsequent declaration of judicial 11 emergency require specific supplementation. Ends-of-justice continuances are excludable only if "the 12 judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such 13 action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial." 18 U.S.C. § 14 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable unless "the court sets forth, in the record of the 15 case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of 16 such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial." Id.

17 The General Orders and declaration of judicial emergency exclude delay in the "ends of justice."
 18 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address
 19 continuances stemming from pandemics, natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has 20 discretion to order a continuance in such circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-
 21 week ends-of-justice continuance following Mt. St. Helens' eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d
 22 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed.
 23 Id. at 767-68; see also United States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to 24 exclude time following the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency).
 25 The coronavirus is posing a similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated 26 by the statutory rules.

27 In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following 28 case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-

1 justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4).² If continued, this Court should designate a new date
2 for the status conference. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any 3 pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

4 STIPULATION

5 Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant
6 HEATHER STANLEY, by and through defendant’s counsel of record, David Torres, hereby stipulate as 7 follows:

8 1. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the status conference until June 14,
9 2021, and to exclude time between March 15, 2021, and June 14, 2021, under Local Code T4.

10 2. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

11 a) The government has represented that the discovery associated with this case
12 includes thousands of pages of reports, photographs, and evidence obtained pursuant to an email
13 search warrant. This discovery has been produced directly to counsel.

14 b) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with his client, to review
15 the current charges, to conduct investigation and research related to the charges, to review and 16 copy discovery for this matter, to discuss potential resolutions with his client, to prepare pretrial
17 motions, and to otherwise prepare for trial.

18 c) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested 19 continuance would deny them the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into 20 account the exercise of due diligence.

21 d) The government does not object to the continuance.

22 e) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the 23 case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the 24 original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

25 f) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161,
26 et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period of March 15, 2021 to June 14, 2021,

27 _____
28 ² The parties note that General Order 612 acknowledges that a district judge may make “additional findings to support the exclusion” at the judge’s discretion. General Order 612, ¶ 5 (E.D.
Cal. March 18, 2020).

1 inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4],
2 because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of
3 the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest
4 of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

5 3. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 6 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
7 must commence.

8 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
